Invitation email to participate in a RF*-event or response on a Questionnaire

Recently you have received an email like below, this email contains a link to login/register an account in SAP Ariba Network where you can access our Questionnaires or RF*-events.

Qualification questionnaire

Dear XXX YYY,

To become an accepted business partner of Air France KLM, especially considering current or upcoming commercial activities, we kindly invite you to complete one or more required questionnaires.

Air France KLM utilizes the SAP Ariba Business Network to register and pre-qualify business partners. Please note that there are no costs associated with using this system.

We request that you complete the questionnaires listed below and submit them at your earliest convenience, but not later than 10 calendar days after receiving this message.

If your company already has an SAP Ariba account, please sign in using your existing username and password. If not, please begin by creating a new account on the SAP Ariba Business Network.

To create your account or to log in to SAP Ariba: Click here.

Ariba Network login/user account creation

After clicking on the link, you should see this webpage, if not please go to Click here.

The screenshot shows a web interface for connecting to SAP Business Network. At the top, it says "Air France - KLM - TEST". Below that, it says "Connect with Air France - KLM - TEST on SAP Business Network to collaborate." It then states "Invited by Air France KLM". A message follows: "We found existing accounts based on the information in the invite. Please review." There is a blue button labeled "Review accounts". Below this, separated by a horizontal line with "or" in the middle, are two white buttons: "Use existing account" and "Create new account". Each of these buttons has a small blue question mark icon to its right.

If you have an Ariba network account (ANID) please select “Use existing account”.

If you don't have an Ariba Network account, please select “Create new account”.

Important” “Review accounts” is not advised option, although this way you can check if your company has an ANID, but you cannot create account which is linked to that account. This way you can contact the admin of this registration (AFKL has no information about who your admin is) or check the ANID of your company.

Login with existing Ariba Network account

In this page you have a possibility to request for information on a (forgotten) username or a (forgotten) password.

If you receive an error, please go to Click here.

If the login was successful, please go to Click here.

Wrong login page

To solve this issue please go back to your email box and search for an invitation email.
